

Who for: Universal Pictures

What for: Mamma Mia! Here We Go Again

Where: Online and In Store

What we did:

To celebrate the DVD release of the eagerly awaited Mamma Mia! Here We Go Again film, we put together a fantastic two centre holiday to Greece for Universal Pictures.

Following in the casts' footsteps, we started off with 3 nights in Skiathos where the first Mamma Mia film was set. Then a tranquil boat ride over the blue Aegean sea to the neighbouring quiet island of Skopelos for four nights completed the amazing themed trip.

The peaceful, traditional islands are the perfect opportunity to embrace all things Greek, and the perfect accompaniment to the release of the second Mamma Mia film.
